

KENT CREST

An Aerodynamic Form Shaped by Air in Motion

KENT CREST carries the strength of a wing rising through the air. Its wide glass body curves upward with a smooth, confident motion, giving the piece a bold yet graceful presence.

The clear textured glass catches surrounding light with soft reflections, while the fine gold-toned edge defines its sweeping outline. Suspended in space, KENT CREST feels powerful, light, and refined — a sculptural glass form shaped by air, balance, and quiet drama.
