

SEA STONEL

Born from the Sea, Formed by Nature

SEA STONEL feels like a stone shaped slowly by the sea. Its soft, rounded glass form has a natural presence, like a pebble smoothed by water over time.

The gentle curves and subtle texture give the piece depth and softness. As light passes through, it creates delicate reflections across the surface. Suspended in space, SEA STONEL feels peaceful, balanced, and sculptural — a simple glass form inspired by sea-shaped stones.
